

MAY 29, 2019
8:00am - 4:00pm

About the Summit:

The Nebraska Cancer Summit brings together individuals and organizations who are working to prevent and control cancer for a day of education and networking.

2019 NEBRASKA CANCER SUMMIT

Registration

$75 NC2 Members
(includes Summit registration and 2019-2020 NC2 membership)

$90 Non-members
$30 Students; Survivors

Register online at necancer.org/summit

CE Contact Hours

CECH, Nursing and CME Hours Pending

Audience

Physicians, nurses, social workers, public health officials, survivors and other health-related professionals involved in cancer prevention and control.

LOCATION

Nebraska Innovation Campus Conference Center
2021 Transformation Drive | Lincoln, NE 68508

8:00 – 8:30 am	Registration & Light Breakfast
8:30 – 8:50 am	Welcome & NC2 Updates
8:50 – 9:50 am	Panel Discussion Data as a Foundation for Cancer Prevention and Control Bryan Health Cancer Registry Nebraska Cancer Registry Nebraska BRFSS
9:50 – 10:00 am	Break
10:00 – 11:00 am	Opening Keynote Cancer Prevention Through Community Systems for Children David Dzewaltowski, PhD Endowed Community Chair and Professor University of Nebraska Medical Center College of Public Health
11:00 am – 12:15 pm	Interactive Breakouts Components of Cancer Prevention and Control in Nebraska Through these interactive sessions, participants will discuss a selected component of cancer prevention and control and identify ways to increase personal engagement in their communities.
12:15 – 1:00 pm	Networking Lunch
1:00 pm – 1:30 pm	Lunch Keynote Nebraska Legislative Update Nick Faustman Nebraska Government Relations Director American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network
1:30 pm – 2:30 pm	Afternoon Keynote Legal Services as a Component of Cancer Care Ann Mangiameli, JD Health, Education & Law Project (HELP) Legal Aid of Nebraska
2:30 – 2:45 pm	Break
2:45 – 3:45 pm	Closing Keynote Working Better Together: What It Really Takes! Jennifer Redmond-Knight, PhD Assistant Professor University of Kentucky College of Public Health
3:45 – 4:00 pm	Closing